MANY SINKIANG NATIVES ABROAD BEING REPATRIATED

Many subjects of Sinkiang who fled to Afghanistan, Turkey, Arabia, and Egypt to escape Sheng Shih-ts'ai's tyranny since 1933, are now returning in great numbers to this province. Their desire to repatriate is a result of the restoration of peace within the province under the principles set forth by the Chinese Central Government and executed so successfully by Gen Chang Chih-chung.

Some have already repatriated from India. Others want assurance before returning so that their livelihood would be guaranteed. The Chinese ambassador in Ankara and the Chinese consul in Istanbul have requested the Central Government to give monetary aid to those who wish to return to Sinkiang.
